VOL. 4 NO. 7

LOMOND, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, SEPT. 26, 1919

$1.00 PER YEAR.

LOCALETS

There is an actual shortage of labor around Lomond. Nothing serious, of course, but at the same time it is next to impossible to get any help whenever occasion does arise. All floating labor appears to have been absorbed in the crop areas or in the coal mines.

And right on top of this along comes J. J. Shaw with an invitation for a hundred men to accompany him to a lumber camp in B.C., where wages will net a man about seventy-five a month clear. J. J. is a regular hound for the bush camps when winter sets in.

The G.W.V.A. announce that their next dance will be held on Halloween, Friday, Oct. 31st., when a grand masquerade will be staged. Keep this under your hat and remember the good time had at their dance last week.

Harry Rickett was over to Carmangay this week where he attended the banquet given by Carmangay in honor of the returned soldiers.

W.A. Macdonald, who formerly practiced law and played five hundred in this little town, paid a flying visit here on Tuesday. W. A. looks quite hale and rosy after spending the summer in the elite East. Mr. Macdonald will not open the Lomond office at present.

Lomond society circles are attending the Eckhardt concert and dance being held in Travers to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox have gone to Drumheller. Mr. Cox will open a barber shop up there.

Mr. George B. Sims of Kinnondale, passed away Tuesday, September 23rd, following a sickness of several weeks. Mr. Sims was one of the first of the homesteaders in this part of the country and was well, and widely known among many friends and acquaintances. Funeral services were held Wednesday and the interment made in the Lomond cemetery.

To-day's weather forces us to appreciate the value of Bow City coal.

Miss Evalina Aseltine left this week via Brooks to take a course of business training in one of the Calgary business colleges.

Both Mr. Hill and the Knight-Watson Ranching Co. are shipping cattle from Lomond to-day.

The Forestville school opened up on Monday with Rev. Bird of Eyremore as chief of staff.

The G.W.V.A. will hold a dance in Paulson's hall, Travers, on Friday, Oct. 10th. Mr. Paulson is donating the hall for this event.

Jack Bowers was down from Calgary on Tuesday, completing the transfer of his former business site in Lomond to Leo Herman.

After being kicked a cund from one office to another for three or four years, the department of telephones has leased the Miller building and is hiring Mrs. Summers to act as agent. There now appears to be some hope for local extension work being done around Lomond.

The Winnipeg Telegram says that while hog prices are on the drop there doesn't appear to be any change in the price of bacon.

Alberta Coal Discovery

Twelve or more seams of high-grade bituminous coal, all of great thickness and workable, are reported to exist at the junction of the Smoky and Muskeg rivers, located north of the Canadian Northern Railway, west of Edmonton. O. S. Finnie, inspecting engineer of the mining lands branch of the department of the interior, has just returned, following a month of close exploration work on behalf of the department. In addition to this high-grade bituminous fuel it is possible, according to Mr. Finnie, that anthracite coal also exists in quantities. Samples of the product will be taken to the laboratories by Mr. Finnie and will undergo tests for later reports to governmental authorities. There is much evidence that coal exists in great seams, and investigation proves that not only is the quantity large but the quality is also good.

The United Farmers of Ontario have fifty-eight candidates in the field in the Ontario provincial elections, while it is said that the conservative factions are split under the leadership of Premier Hearst and Hon. Adam Beck.

DOUBLE APPEAL TO BUSINESS INSTINCTS OF WESTERN FARMER

Investing of profits in Victory Bonds has a particular appeal to Western farmers. The action is a sort of merry-go-round in which the farmer makes money at each turn. Not only does he gain a good rate of interest, but he assures himself of a market for his products at profitable prices.

The big business of Canada is built on foreign trade. This foreign trade has to be financed. Victory Loan proceeds provide the credits. The farmer is provided with markets.

The grain grower of the West is receiving $2.15 a bushel for his wheat, and proportionately good prices for his other products. As a matter of good business, the Western farmer is urged to invest every cent of his earnings that he can spare in these bonds.

The Ira Donly family are leaving Saturday for Drumheller where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. T. Chapman will occupy their residence for the school term.

NOTES

A returned man in Calgary told us a few days ago that he was one of the three men taken back on the staff of the company he was with before going overseas. The company discharged three men who had not seen service, and who were receiving a salary of $150 per month, and made a great show of patriotism by hiring three returned men at $110 per month. Even we could be patriotic at $120 per of clear mazuma. But this method of procedure is bound to breed discontent and trouble and is but a short sighted business shift.

Another sore spot in Canadian politics is the tariff. Present established political parties foster protection. Some of them make a big noise for tariff revision and all that, but at the same time the big guns are always lurking in the rear when the vote is cast and Ottawa lines up as a stone wall for protected markets. If anyone can present a reasonable argument for protected markets he has yet to be seen by anyone connected with the LOMOND PRESS.

Canada is about to float another Victory Loan. It is expected this will be the last flotation occasioned by the great war, but it is of necessity in the present state of affairs. While it cannot be expected that this part of the country will subscribe to any great extent there are however a few people who have the long green and who will appreciate the opportunity of making a permanent and safe investment.

In a great many of the towns all over the West the people are getting busy at skating rinks. Lomond people made several attempts last winter to get a sheet of ice but the weather man foiled every effort. There is not one chance in a hundred of having a mild winter, so let's all get in line and bring forth a bucket of water at the appointed time.

Those who were lucky enough to get their groves of trees started away back in 1911 and 1915 have found that the wind break provides an admirable spot for gardening, as the snow is held and the slow thawing allows the moisture to sink into the ground and even in a dry year like this fairly commendable vegetation can be grown. Trees add to the beauty of the place but this is not their only function.

NOTES

There is more truth than fiction in the statement made by General Sir Arthur Currie when he remarked that "it was not the returned men that were causing the unrest and disturbance in this country, but the men who stayed at home and who feared for their security
when the return of the boys
jeopardised their highly paid
jobs."

If the myriad of yaps would only close their talking machines and let those work who so desire there would not be half so many scare-heads in the daily papers. On the other hand, we want a new brand of political officers in control of our government who will sincerely undertake to protect and guarantee the rights of the people whom they represent. At the present time the man who has wealth is about the only one who is shown any consideration. Canada can absorb her returned men without any difficulty but never can absorb such cancers as war-
made millionaires and labor agitators. There is no hope for the reduction in the cost of living as long as the Canadian income tax is not enforced to the letter of the law and so long as labor is kept from production

through machinations of so-called union leaders.

o o o

Since the rains quite a healthy growth of mushrooms have been enjoyed by those fiends
who relish this table delicacy.
It is rather remarkable to think that they should grow this late in the fall and still retain the spring freshness and tenderness.

o o o

Last spring a start was made in Lomond toward giving the returned boys some kind of a reception, just to let them know
we had appreciated their sacrifices a wee bit. At that time a postponement was made with the idea of getting all the boys
here before arranging any sort of a public function and having one how-do-you-do to serve the purpose. 'Tis now fall and no signs are approaching of any interest being manifest in this behalf. Perhaps some public spirited citizen will be good enough to come forward and tell us what to do and perhaps
do it for us.

Talking of concerts and the like, why not develop a bit of local talent and get up a show in our own town by our own people. A little minstrel, a little drama and some of the individual talent intermingled, would make us all a bit better acquainted. Let's get together and see what can be done.

EDITING A NEWSPAPER

Editing a newspaper is pleasant business—if you can stand it.

If it contains any advertisements, the subscribers claim they take too much space.

If there is a scarcity of advertising, it is unpopular and the people won't have it.

If we attend church regularly, they say we do it for effect.

If we stay away from church they say we are mysteriously heathenish.

If we accept an invitation to a wedding, they say we are invited to "write it up".

If we are on the street much, they say we neglect our business.

If we avoid going on the street, they say we don't hustle for news.

If we reject a long winded communication, its author becomes enraged and discontinues his paper.

If we publish lengthy communications, our subscribers say we lack discretion and put it in to fill up.

If we omit decorating our window on Dominion Day, they say we lack enterprise, and there isn't a drop of patriotic blood in our degenerated carcass.

If we omit jokes we are poor, miserable fossils.

If we are single, we are too helpless to get married.

If we are married, they say its a pity for our wives.

We are liable to receive these raps and many more, and we are always ready to receive visitors. Of course, we do not claim there is any work in running a newspaper. Everybody knows it's a snap.

PRINCE CAUSES CONFUSION.

Saskatchewan must have got into a tremendous state of excitement over the Prince's visit, judging from some of their news apers. At a certain town the Prince passed through, between Edmonton and Saskatoon, the local editor got everything balled up in his excitement, as is evidenced by the mixing up of a wedding and an auction notice. It has been sent to us for reproduction. Here it is.

"William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, and Miss Lucy

Anderson were disposed of at a public sale on my farm one mile east, in the presence of seventy guests, including two mules and twelve head of cattle. Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot for the parties, averaging 1,250 pounds on the hoof.

"The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with one sulky rake, one feed grinder and two sets of work harness, nearly new, and just before the ceremony was pronounced the Mendel & Sons' march was rendered by one milch cow and one sheep, who, carrying a bunch of bridal roses in her hand, was beautiful. She wore one light spring wagon, two crates of apples, three racks of hay, and one grindstone of muslin de soie, trimmed with about one hundred bushel of spuds. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip. Terms spot cash.
